Income Tax Withholding

Compensation paid to election workers are considered taxable wages per the Internal Revenue Service. The City will be required to send a W2 for these wages. However, these wages are not subject to income tax withholding unless the election worker notifies the City that they would like income taxes withheld.

Check One Box

I do not want income taxes withheld from my payment.

I want income taxes withheld from my payment. If you choose to have taxes withheld, a W4 form will be sent to you to complete.
